

Regulations for compulsory service of PhD assistant of SME

- PhD student, who TA allowance is offered, should obligatorily work at SME or GIST College as an assistant within 8 semesters.
- The assistant should be completed before the semester when the examination for PhD degree is executed (The assistant during the semester when the examination for PhD degree is executed is not conceded).

Recognition scope for an assistant duty

1) Paid assistant

- ① assistant for coursework (one semester): only coursework which has more than 30 registered students
- ② assistant for computer equipment (one semester)
- ③ a student representative or a deputy student representative (two semesters)

2) assistant for lecture of experiment at GIST College (one semester)

3) unpaid assistant: assistant for coursework designated by Professor in charge (one semester)

(Subjects, which less than 30 students attend, are conceded)

- Laboratory representative and voluntary service during master courses are not admitted.
- Those are mandatory after class of 2013 and both of domestic and foreign students are equally applied.
- Minimum mandatory counts of assistant conduction
 - 1) For students of PhD and integrated courses before class of 2017: once
 - 2) For students of PhD and integrated courses after class of 2018: twice